

EVERY CHILD A FILMMAKER

INTO

Because we believe every young person has the right to tell their story through film.

Join us and together we will give children and young people across the UK the skills and confidence they need to bring their ideas to life.

Into Film's Every Child a Filmmaker uses filmmaking to transform young lives. With a focus on those who may not otherwise get these opportunities, the programme pairs professional filmmakers with small groups of young people to work together through a series of filmmaking workshops and on-set experiences.

Together they explore roles, including scriptwriting, acting, directing, filming and editing to make their own short film for the big screen.

The programme has been designed to share quality filmmaking skills, spark creativity, foster self-expression and confidence to raise aspirations for a career in the screen industries.

Join our wonderful partners from across the film industry to play your part, and together we will bring new voices and different perspectives to film.

Into Film's Every Child A Filmmaker campaign is a wonderfully designed programme to encourage all young people to express themselves and tell their stories through the powerful medium of film.

BARBARA BROCCOLI CBE
PRODUCER, EON PRODUCTIONS

ONE YEAR OF EVERY CHILD A FILMMAKER

In our first year, with the support of partners including EON Productions, Amazon MGM Studios and Swatch, we have worked with 28 groups of young people from schools, youth groups, special education needs and CAMHS to make 28 short films – from thrillers and action dramas to documentaries on mental health and women’s rights.

Of the 330 children and young people who took part across the UK:

- 92% said they felt more confident after taking part in their project
- 89% said their understanding of film production had increased
- 83% said their understanding of screen careers had increased
- 87% said they felt better able to creatively express themselves
- 90% said their teamwork skills had improved

*The students’ lives will never be the same again...
a wonderful experience’*

BEN CUTTING
TEACHER, SHEFFIELD

Their stories include a documentary on the gentrification of “Our Peckham”, a ‘Day in the Life’ montage filmed by young people with spinal injuries, fighting back against bullying, ‘Ninja-style’, by a group of students with special educational needs, and a moving story about accepting each other for our differences, called ‘Dinosaur’.

Oh, and we won an award! The Best Education and Arts Partnership at the North East Culture Awards 2024.

The films were shared on the big screen, including at the Into Film Festival attended by 365,000 children and young people, and streamed into classrooms UK-wide on Into Film+

All of the films produced as part of the Every Child a Filmmaker programme can be viewed here.
